

LAKE COUNTY RECORDER ON THE RECORD

Lake County Ohio Recorder—Becky Lynch

Issue - JULY 2022

LIBERTY CAMP FUN!

What a great learning experience for 101 Lake County Kids at Liberty Kids Camp this year! Lessons at the summer camp included respect for our country's founding, understanding of virtues and morality, having respect for others and minding one's manners. Experiencing the concepts of The Declaration of Independence and The Constitution marked the greatest impact on their young minds. Thank you to Ms. Linda O'Brien whose love and dedication to our Posterity shines brightly upon them with her gift of this wonderful camp. MT. VERNON VISIT.

The home of our 1st President George Washington is one of my most favorite places in the world to visit. What a great compliment to our work with the Liberty Camp and what a fun history filled month of July this year! Check out the amazing features in LAREDO searching called LAREDO ANYWHERE!

You can now use your mobile device to access information and public records in the Lake County Recorder Office. The research which is manageable from our Laredo Desktop public computer stations in the Records Room can now be very easily obtained right on your own device. Not only that, you also will have the ability to sort columns and move the data around so that your desired format is conveniently showing on your cell.

Laredo Anywhere is the mobile companion service to Laredo Desktop which enables users to do timely critical searches as well as viewing and printing document images using mobile devices such as phones and tablets.

We are excited to be able to have the additional method of payment of credit cards in the Recorder Office. You will have the option of charging your recording fees, copies, etc. on your credit card within the next few weeks. We have performed the first testing of fund movement this week and look forward to completing testing quickly.

More to come on the modern and state of the art processes in our office in 2022. Have a great rest of your wonderful July!

"Happy 246th Birthday America!
